NOVEL

Write a cogent essay on each of the following:

Do not use the same novel in more than one answer. No credit will be given for duplication.

1. Various critical approaches--psychoanalytical, feminist, generic, and others--have been applied to the interpretation of novels. Select a critical approach of your own choice and use it to write an in-depth analysis of ONE of the following novels: (30%)

Sons and Lovers      Moll Flanders      The Color Purple
Heart of Darkness      The Bell Jar      David Copperfield

2. The intense focus on the individual consciousness is prevalent in the novels of Joyce, Faulkner, and Lawrence. Choose TWO out of these three authors and discuss why and how they use distinctive narrative styles and plots to portray the plight of the individual in light of powerful social trends and forces? (35%)

3. Some novels are noted for their use of symbolism and others for their characterization. Give an example of each kind, describing in detail its presentation of these features. (35%)
