【 Latest News 】

On December 4 the curtain dropped successfully on the eye-catching senior play performance of The Importance of Being Earnest. The senior play crew sincerely appreciates your attendance and ardent applause. Now that the play has come to an end after months of preparation and rehearsals, the FLL students are now looking forward to the Christmas Ball that will be held by the FLL Student Committee on December 21 (see the announcement below for details). So, ladies and gentlemen, shall we dance?
