二、簡答題（以英文或中文作答皆可，350 字為限，滿分 19 分）

We all witness how convenient stores, such as 7-11 and Family Mart, have transformed people's life style in Taiwan during the past decade. Nowadays, convenient stores don't just sell "convenience" but may assume the role of creating "affordable happy life" for local residents. For example, consumers can spend 35 dollars enjoying a cup of coffee at 7-11 in a cold winter day and use the free wifi in the store for checking on friends' Facebook updates.

Please analyze: (a) how 7-11 or other convenient stores have done to create and deliver the value of "affordable happy life" for the segment of college students; and (b) what could be further developed to enhance the realization of this value.

(You can answer this question either in Chinese or in English, with the 350 word-limit.)
